to do assessment work with respect to such included claims, as provided in paragraph 6, for current and future assessment years, but only if this option remains in effect on or after June 1st in any such year. It shall be the responsibility of the OPTIONORS to name, enumerate and describe for the OPTIONEE as soon as possible any claims which, if OPTIONEE so elects, may be made part of this option by virtue of location within the aforesaid one (1) mile limit. The above paragraph shall not be applicable to leases or options on other properties not owned by the OPTIONORS within the aforesaid one (1) mile perimeter.

9. OPTIONORS shall during the continuance of the option, at OPTIONEE's request and expense, initiate and prosecute in the name of the OPTIONORS proceedings to patent any of the unpatented claims and, in such case, OPTIONORS shall execute any and all documents required in connection with the proceedings with respect to such unpatented claims, but if OPTIONEE requests OPTIONORS to discontinue such patent proceedings or if this option shall be terminated before such patent shall issue, OPTIONEE shall be under no further obligation with respect thereto except to pay with respect to such patenting proceedings all charges accrued prior to such request to discontinue or such termination but unpaid.

10. Upon the execution of this instrument, OPTIONEE, its authorized agents, employees, contractors, and representatives shall have the exclusive right to enter into and upon the land covered by the Mining Claims and to conduct thereon, to the extent and at such locations as it shall deem desirable, prospecting, exploring, developing, drilling, trenching, stripping, excavating, test pitting, sampling and other exploration and development activities for the purpose of determining mineral content thereof and to place thereon any equipment, structures, or other facilities which it may desire and to remove the same if placed thereon by it, at any time within one hundred eighty (180) days after it shall have in any manner terminated or allowed the option herein granted to terminate. OPTIONEE may remove such
