

All rights of the Northwestern Electric Company granted to it by Ordinance No. 64 of the Town of Camas, in Clarke County, State of Washington, said ordinance having been read the third time and passed by the Council of said Town of Camas on the 14th day of March, 1911, and approved by the Mayor, and entitled: "An Ordinance granting to the Northwestern Electric Company, its successors and assigns, for a period of fifty (50) years, the right and privilege to erect, construct, maintain and operate an electric light, heat and power system in the Town of Camas, Clarke County, Washington, and the right and privilege to erect poles, stretch wires thereon and thereover, through, over, under and upon the streets, alleys, public places and highways, and to construct underground tunnels, conduits or pipes with all necessary entrances, man-holes and other appliances in and under said streets, alleys, and public highways in the Town of Camas, for the conducting and conveying of electricity for light, heat and power; to charge rent and tolls therefor, and to collect the same."

All rights of the Northwestern Electric Company granted to it by Ordinance No. 20 of the Town of Washougal, in Clarke County, State of Washington, passed by the Council on November 20, 1911, and approved by the Mayor November 20, 1911, entitled: "An ordinance granting to the Northwestern Electric Company, its successors and assigns, for a period of fifty (50) years, the right and privilege to erect, construct, maintain and operate an electric light, heat and power system in the Town of Washougal, Clarke County, Washington, and the right and privilege to erect poles, stretch wires thereon and thereover, through, over, under and upon the streets, alleys, public places and highways and to construct underground tunnels, conduits or pipes, with all necessary entrances, man-holes and other appliances in and under said streets, alleys and public highways in the town of Washougal, for the conducting and conveying of electricity for lights, heat and power; to charge rents and tolls therefor, and to collect the same."

All rights of the Northwestern Electric Company under a certain franchise granted to said company by the County of Skamania, State of Washington, whereby said company is authorized to erect pole and tower lines along certain of the county roads of said county, for a period of fifty (50) years, said franchise having been granted by the County Commissioners of Skamania County on the 4th day of January, 1912. The rights of way granted in said franchise are more specifically described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at the west boundary line of Skamania County; thence along the old Military Road known as the Vancouver & Cascades Road to the intersection with the Mount Pleasant Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Vancouver and Cascades Road to the western boundary of the Town of Stevenson; beginning at the eastern boundary of the Town of Stevenson; thence along the Vancouver & Cascades Road to the intersection with the Carson & Ash Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the St. Martin's Hill Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Home Valley Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Rock Creek and Collins Road; thence along said road to the village of Collins;

Beginning at the Village of Cooks along the Cooks Landing and Mill A Road to its intersection with the Cooks and Drano Hill Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Drano Hill Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Underwood and Chenoweth Road; thence along said road to its intersection with the Underwood-White Salmon Road; also along Buck Creek Road beginning at its intersection with the Underwood and Chenoweth Road.

All rights of Northwestern Electric Company under a certain franchise granted to said company by the County of Clarke, State of Washington, whereby said company is authorized to construct and maintain electric light lines, electric tower lines and pole lines along