Jesse D. Lavery, being first duly sworn upon his oath deposes and says that he conducted the negotiations for himself Oscar L. Horr, H.E. Babcock, E.C. Babcock, Myra B. Gowen and Retta O Babcock in which said parties made a loan of $1000.00 to Leland E. Bristol, said note being dated Jan 8th 1910 and due on or before 5 years after date and drawing interest at 7% per annum. That said note was held by this affiant for said above named parties but that same has been mislaid or lost and this affiant is unable to find or produce the same but that this affiant for himself and the other parties above named hereby acknowledges payment in full from H.C. Lowden for said note and the same is hereby admitted to be settled in full and that this affiant will forever hold said H.C. Lowden and the Estate of Leland E. Bristol harmless from any claim or demands arising from said note above described, said affiant makes this affidavit on his own behalf and as attorney for the other parties to said note, further affiant saith not.
