

$200.00

The Dalles, Oregon July 7, 1913.

5 years after date, on or before without grace, we or either of us promise to pay to Leon W. Curtiss or order, at French & Co's Bank The Dalles, Oregon, two hundred Dollars, in United States Gold Coin, for value received, with interest after date in like coin, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum until paid; interest payable semi-annually. And in case suit or action is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, we promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees in said suit or action.

Signed E.A. Wren
Cirocia E. Wren

Now, if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to agreement therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default shall be made in the payment of the principal or interest as above provided, then the said Leon W. Curtiss, his heirs and legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable sum as attorney's fees and the overplus, if any there be, paid over to the said E. A. Wren and Cirocia E. Wren, their heirs or assigns, and the said part of the first part, for heirs, executors and administrators, do covenant and agree to pay the said part of the second part executors, administrators or assigns the said sum of money as above mentioned.

WITNESS, our hands and seals this 9th day of July, A.D.1913.
