

Due May 4, 1915, at Portland, Oregon.

Chas B. Collins
Isabella Collins C.E. Collins

The property herein mortgaged shall be held to secure the payment of a reasonable attorneys fee in case suit is instituted to foreclose this mortgage.

Now, if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to the agreements therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default shall be made in payment of the principal or annual interest as above provided, then the said William Richardson and his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner prescribed by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and said attorney's fees; and the overplus, if any there be, paid over to the said Charles B. Collins and Isabella Collins their heirs or assigns.

WITNESS our hands and seals this 5th day of November A.D., 1914.
