

and the loss, if any, made payable to such mortgagee subject to rights Richard Everding. And it is expressly agreed and provided by and between the parties hereto, that if said mortgagors shall fail or neglect to pay said taxes and assessments as above provided, the mortgagee may effect such insurance and pay such taxes and the premium or premiums paid for such insurance and the taxes so paid, the parties of the first part agree to repay, and the said sums of money shall at once become due and bear interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum until repaid. And the same shall be paid at the same time and with the first installment of interest which shall become due thereafter, and shall be a part of the debt secured by this mortgage and a lien on said land. Now the payment of the said principal, interest, taxes, and insurance premiums, as above provided, will render this conveyance void. But it is expressly provided, that time and the exact performance of all the conditions hereof is of the essence of this contract, and in case default be made in the payment of any of said sums of money when due and payable, as above provided, either of the principal or any installment of interest, or any portion thereof or of any of the said taxes, or in the performance of any of the covenants or conditions herein provided on the part of the mortgagors, then the whole of the principal sum and the interest accrued at the time default is made, and all taxes which the holder of said note shall have paid, or become liable to pay, shall at the option of such holder become due and payable and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And it is also expressly agreed between ~~the~~ said parties that if any suit is instituted to effect such foreclosure, by reason of any such default, the party to such suit holding this mortgage may recover therein as attorney's fees such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable, in addition to costs and disbursements allowed by the code of civil procedure, and said attorney's fees and costs shall be secured by this mortgage.
