JONES TO ATTWELL.

THIS indenture made this 16th day of August, 1915, between Lusia A. Jones a widow, party of the first part, and Myrtle Attwell, party of the second part,

WITNESSETH, WHEREAS, the second party has loaned to the first party the full sum of five hundred dollars, which sum the first party agrees to repay April 21, 1917, after this date, and to pay interest thereon annually at the rate of 10% per annum, from this date until paid, and also to pay all taxes and assessments which may be assessed or levied against the second party or assigns, on account of such loan, all according to the terms of a certain promissory note given therefor, of which the following is a copy to wit:

$500.00

Portland, Oregon, August 16, 1915.

On April 21, 1917, after date, without grace, I promise to pay to the order of Myrtle Attwell, at Portland, Oregon Five hundred 00/100 Dollars in Gold Coin of the United States of America, of the present standard value, with interest thereon in like gold Coin at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from date until paid, for value received. Interest to be paid annually and if not so paid, the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectible, at the option of the holder of this note. And in case suit or action is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, I promise and agree to pay, in addition to the costs and disbursements provided by statute, such additional sum, in like Gold Coin, as the Court may adjudge reasonable, for Attorney's fees, to be allowed in said suit or action.

10 cents i.r. stamps attached
and cancelled. Lusia A. Jones.

No Due

Now therefore in consideration of said loan, and for the purpose of securing the payment of the said several sums of money named in said note, and the faithful performance of all the covenant herein contained, the first party does hereby grant,
