

of George S. Whiteside, at Portland, Oregon, One thousand Dollars in Gold Coin of the United States of America, of the present standard value, without interest, except after maturity when interest shall be paid at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of maturity until paid, for value received. And in case suit or action is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, I promise and agree to pay, in addition to the costs and disbursements provided by statute, such additional sum, in like Gold Coin as the Court may adjudge reasonable, for attorney's fees to be allowed in said suit or action.

(sd) H.W. Hamlin.

(sd) Caroline Hamlin.

Now if the sums of money due upon said instrument shall be paid according to agreement therein expressed, this conveyance shall be void, but in case default shall be made in payment of the principal or interest, as above provided, then the said George S. Whiteside and his legal representatives may sell the premises above described, with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof in the manner prescribed by law and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and a reasonable sum as attorneys fees and the overplus if any there be, paid over to the said H.W. Hamlin and Caroline Hamlin, their heirs or assigns, and the said parties of the first part, for their heirs, executors and administrators do covenant and agree to pay said party of the second part his executors, administrators and assigns, the said sum of money as above mentioned.
