

Provided, further, that if any of my said daughters shall not survive me, and shall leave no husband, child, children or other lineal descendant her surviving, then it is my will and I direct that the share which would have gone to such daughter, shall go and belong to such of my daughters as are then living, and to the issue, if any, of any deceased daughter, such issue to take by right of representation, and I give, devise and bequeath the same unto them and to their respective heirs and assigns FOREVER.

PARAGRAPH NO. XXI. I have advanced to my daughters and nephews named as legatees in this my will, and to the husbands of my said daughters, certain sums of money from time to time, a record of which advances appears on my books of account. I direct my Executors and Trustees herein named, to deduct from the amounts bequeathed to each of said daughters, whatever sums may have been advanced to them or their husbands, and from the amounts bequeathed to each of said nephews, whatever sums may have been advanced to them, as shown by my said books of account without interest being charged thereon.

PARAGRAPH NO. XXII. I hold and own certain stock of the Randall Lumber and Coal Company, a corporation, which operates a yard at Flint, Michigan, with which my son-in-law, Harry Kanouse, is connected. I direct that my daughter, Jennie Marion Salling Kanouse, shall have the privilege of purchasing all of such stock to be applied on account of her distributive share of my estate as herein provided or otherwise, at its net cost to me as appears and shown by my books of account, and without interest.

PARAGRAPH NO. XXIII. I hereby nominate and appoint said The Michigan Trust Company and said Oren S. Hawes, and in event of the death of said Oren S. Hawes, then said Elmer J. Cornwell, to be the Executors and Trustees of this my last will and testament, giving and granting unto my said Executors and Trustees in each capacity, full power and authority to bargain, sell, transfer, and convey, and in any manner dispose of my estate, real or personal, or any part thereof, at such times, in such manner, on such terms and for such purposes as to them, in the exercise of an honest discretion, may seem proper and for the best interest of my estate, giving and granting unto them full power and authority to invest and re-invest any moneys which shall come to them as such Executors or Trustees, in such manner, and on such terms as they shall deem proper and for the best interest of my estate. In the event of the death of both said Oren S. Hawes and Elmer J. Cornwell, I direct that all of the power and authority herein given to my said Executors and Trustees, shall be vested, and I hereby vest the same in the Michigan Trust Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 15th day of February A.D. 1907.
