vs

Myrtle Valet and Margaret Iman, guardian of Myrtle Valet, infant, And Ethel Iman and Simeon Iman, infants and Hazel Iman infant, George H. Stevenson, L.K. Chapman and Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company a corporation and The Cascade Land and Investment Company, defendants.

Order and Judgment of partition of property as per decree.

That the above named cause coming on regularly to be heard pursuant to the judgment and decree herein before entered in said matter in which among other things adjudged and decreed it was adjudged and decreed that said lands described therein should be partitioned and divided or in the event that could not be done that the same be sold and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court at this time on November 16th 1911, that all the parties hereto are satisfied and consent that this matter be heard at this time O.P.M. Jamison and Frank E. Vaughan appearing for said plaintiff as his attorney and George E. O'Bryon appearing as attorney for Simeon Iman and A.O. Iman his guardian also being present in court and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that plaintiff had settled with and purchased the interest of Myrtle Valet and Ethel Iman said defendant having married in the mean time and also the interest formerly being in Hazel Iman now deceased of her mother Christine Iman and also having agreed upon a division of the property with defendant Cascade Land and Investment Company out of Court and it further appearing to the court on behalf of said defendant Simeon Iman that said George E. O'Bryon and his guardian A.O. Iman and after careful consideration made a fair and equitable division of said property between him and said plaintiff and that it was for the best interest of said infant Simeon Iman to have set off to him an acre and a half nearest to the town of Stevenson in lieu of his part and share which is hereinafter particularly described and after the court being fully advised in the premises:

It is Therefore Ordered and Adjudged that said property be and the same is hereby divided and there
