

THIS CONVEYANCE IS INTENDED as a MORTGAGE to secure the payment of One thousand ($1000.00) Dollars, lawful money of the United States, together with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from date until paid, according to the terms and conditions of one certain promissory note bearing date September 30, 1915, made by S.B. Ives payable two years after date to the order of Joseph Paquet and these presents shall be void if such payment be made according to the terms and conditions thereof. But in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest of said promissory note or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms and conditions thereof, then the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors administrators or assigns may immediately thereafter in the manner provided by law, foreclose this mortgage for the whole amount due upon said principal and interest, with all the other sums hereby secured.

In any suit or other proceeding which may be had for the recovery of the amount due on either said note or this mortgage, said party of the second part his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to have included in the judgment which may be recovered the sum of $100.00 as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of the costs in such suit, as well as all payments which said party of the second part his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns may be obliged to make for his or their security by insurance or on account of any taxes, charges, incumbrances or assessments whatsoever on the said premises or any part thereof.

In case of the foreclosure of this mortgage, the party of the second part, his heirs executors, administrators or assigns shall be entitled to have entered in such foreclosure suit a judgment for any deficiency remaining due upon account of the indebtedness secured hereby, including taxes, insurance or other lawful assessments after applying the proceeds of the sale of the premises above described to the payment thereof, and to the costs of such foreclosure suit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said party of the first part has hereunto set his hand and seal the day and year first above written.

Signed, sealed and delivered in the presence of S.B. Ives. (SEAL)
