

Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, and the interest thereon, in accordance with the tenor of a certain promissory note of which the following is a copy, to-wit:

$500.00

June 7th, 1915.

On or before three years from date for value received I promise to pay to John Ziniker, or order, the sum of Five hundred ($500.00) dollars, with interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum. If the interest is not paid when due it shall be compounded with the principal and bear ^{like} interest, principal and interest payable in United States gold coin, and in case suit is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof I promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of such suit, for the use of plaintiff's attorney.

Note stamped 10¢.

Andrew Tenner.

Now, if the sum of money due upon said promissory note be paid according to the agreements herein expressed this conveyance shall be void, but in case default be made in the principal or interest as therein provided, then the said John Ziniker, or his legal representatives may sell the premises above described with all and every of the appurtenances, or any part thereof, in the manner provided by law, and out of the money arising from such sale, retain the said principal and interest, together with the costs and charges of making such sale, and the overplus if any there be, pay over to the said Andrew Tenner his heirs and assigns.

Witness my hand and seal this 7th day of June 1915.

Executed in the presence of

Andrew Tenner. (Seal)
