

THIS CONVEYANCE is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of Five Hundred and no/100 Dollars, lawful money of the United States, together with interest thereon at the rate of Six per cent. per annum from date until paid, according to the terms and conditions of One certain promissory note, bearing date August 16th, 1919, made by U. H. Freeburg and Beatrice Freeburg payable on or before Two years after date to the order of N. H. Nelson and these presents shall be void if such payment be made according to the terms and conditions thereof. But in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest of said promissory note, or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms and conditions thereof, then the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns may immediately thereafter, in the manner provided by law, foreclose this mortgage for the whole amount due upon said principal and interest, with all the other sums hereby secured.

In any suit or other proceeding which may be had for the recovery of the amount due, on either said note or this mortgage, said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to have included in the judgment which may be recovered, the sum that the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of the cost in such suit, as well as all payments which said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns may be obliged to make for his or their security, by insurance or on account of any taxes, charges, incumbrances or assessments whatsoever on the said premises or any part thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
