Order in re Booth estate

In the Superior Court of the state of Washington for Skamania County.

In the matter of the estate of

Louis M. Booth, deceased.

Order.

Upon reading and filing the verified petition of Edna L. Booth executrix of the estate of Louis M. Booth deceased and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that it is for the best interest of said estate to borrow one thousand dollars for three years at eight per cent per annum interest rather than sell real property or any portion thereof at this time for the purpose of paying claims and debts against the estate, the Court being fully advised in the premises: Now on Motion of Whitfield and Coan and E.E. Shields attorneys for the executrix and for said estate: It is hereby ordered and adjudged that said executrix Edna L. Booth be and is hereby authorized to borrow the sum of One thousand dollars for the use and benefit of said estate and to execute here note as executrix as evidence thereof and secure the payment by a mortgage upon real property belonging to said estate to Clara G. Boone, payable three years after date with interest at eight per cent per annum.
