

paid and retired.

6. To the payment to E.S. McCord, solicitor for the defendant, William W. Crawford, Trustee, of the sum of $2500. 00, the attorney's fee allowed him for the foreclosure of the Crawford mortgage.

7. To the payment to William W. Crawford, Trustee, of the sum of $453,591.67, with interest from the 20th day of February, 1915.

8. The overplus, if any, to be paid into court, to be distributed in such manner as the court may direct.

IT IS CONSIDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the Receiver of the Washington Northern Railroad Company do pay to the purchaser at the said sale such funds as may be in his possession on the day of sale over and above what shall be necessary to pay the obligations of the said Receiver, and that the purchaser at the said sale take the said property charged with the burden of paying any unpaid obligations of the said Receiver, but that the purchaser take the said property free from all other liens and incumbrances, and free from all claims and demands of all the parties to this suit, and that he take such title thereto as was had by the Washington Northern Railroad Company on the 4th day of June, 1910, together with all title by it since acquired.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the purchaser be let into the possession of the said premises, and that on the expiration of the period allowed for redemption under the statutes of Washington that a deed be executed in favor of the purchaser, and of his successor in interest, if any, unless the property shall, within the period allowed therefor by law, be redeemed from the lien effect of the said sale in the manner prescribed by the statutes of the State of Washington.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the said Master in Chancery do proceed to sell the properties of the Oregon-Washington Timber Company as an entirety, and the properties of the Washington Northern Railroad Company as an entirety.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the first parcel to be sold at the said sale shall be the property acquired by H.E. Collins, as Receiver of the Washington Northern Railroad Company, and hereinbefore specifically described, and that the proceeds of the sale of the said property be applied to the payment of the receiver's certificates issued by the said H.E. Collins, as Receiver of the Washington Northern Railroad Company.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that in default of the payment hereinbefore specified to be made to the defendant, William W. Crawford, Trustee, within thirty days from the date of this decree that the said Master in Chancery do proceed to sell the logging equipment purchased from the Wiest Logging Company, and hereinbefore described, and the properties of the Blazier Timber Company hereinbefore described, and that the proceeds of the said sale be applied:

1. To the expenses of the said sale.
2. To the payment of the sum of $2500.00 to E.S. McCord, senior solicitor for the defendant, William W. Crawford, as his attorney's fee.
3. To the payment of the sum of $453,591.67 and interest from the 20th day of February, 1915, at 6% per annum, preference being given to accrued interest on the said debt.

IT IS CONSIDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the purchaser of the said logging equipment and of the said properties of the Blazier Timber Company take such title thereto as was had by Blazier Timber Company on the 1st day of March, 1912, with all title by it since acquired and all title held by the several parties to this suit.