I, Anthony R. Gangloff, being first duly sworn on oath, depose and say: That I am the individual named as Anthony R. Gangloff, the grantee in that certain deed made and executed by Louis Eyman and Harriet C. Eyman, husband and wife, the grantors, which deed is dated Dec. 18, 1906, and recorded Dec. 21, 1906, in Book K of Deeds, at page 214, Deed Records of Skamania County, Washington, and that I further state that I never resided in the State of Washington and that said property was not community property and that upon the 11th day of March, 1914, and while I was living at #674 Multnomah St. in the City of Portland, Oregon, Mary C. Gangloff, my wife, passed away and I have ever since been and am now an unmarried man; that I further state that there were no children born of the marriage existing between the affiant and Mary C. Gangloff; that I am the identical person named as Anthony R. Gangloff, mentioned as grantor in that certain deed made to the Bankers Investment Company, a corporation, on the 27th day of February, 1915, and recorded on March 9, 1915 in Book P of Deeds, at page 215, Deed Records of Skamania County, Washington; that I am also the identical person named as Anthony R. Gangloff, as grantor in that certain deed made to G.S. Smith, and which is dated the 27th day of February, 1915, and recorded on the 21st day of April, 1915 in Book P of Deeds, at page 242, Deed Records of Skamania County
