IN PROBATE

No. 885

PETITION FOR LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF THE ABOVE ENTITLED COURT:

Your petitioner Harry W. Kanouse, of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, respectfully shows unto the court::

II.
That your petitioner Harry W. Kanouse is a resident of Detroit, Michigan, and a citizen of said state, and is the surviving husband of Jennie Marion Salling Kanouse who died intestate November 9, 1910 at Detroit, Michigan, where she was then resident. That said Jennie Marion Salling Kanouse was one of the four daughters and heirs at law of Ernest N. Salling, deceased, of Manistee, Michigan, who, at the time of his death, owned certain real estate in the following named counties of the State of Washington, to-wit: Cowlitz County, Skamania County, Thurston County, Skagit County and Whatcom County. That the estate of said Ernest N. Salling has been probated but has never been divided.

II.

That the said Jennie Marion Salling Kanouse was the owner of a one-fourth interest in all of the estate of the said Ernest N. Salling, and that no administration of her estate has been had in the State of Washington and that no other court of the State of Washington has acquired jurisdiction to administer said estate. That said estate consists entirely of unimproved timber lands of which the annual rents and profits do not exceed the sum of $100.00; that there is not personal property belonging to said estate in the State of Washington.
