It is hereby mutually understood and agreed between the parties that if at any time in the future the grantor, or its successors or assigns, desires to remove the timber standing upon the above described tracts of land or use the land in any manner in which the telephone line constitutes an obstruction, that the grantee will at its own expense, maintain or reconstruct the line in such a manner or upon such a location that logging operations will not be interfered with.

This grant shall be effective on the grantor and its assigns as long as said easement shall be actually used for the purpose above specified and all rights hereunder shall revert to the owner of the land as soon as the said use thereof shall be abandoned and discontinued.

The grantee shall at all reasonable times have the right to enter for the purpose of construction, repairing, patrolling and removing such telephone and telegraph lines. The grantee will pay the grantor and its assigns for any damage caused by operations authorized, provided that nothing contained in this easement shall be construed as binding the Forest Service to spend in any one fiscal year any sum in excess of appropriations made by Congress for that fiscal year, or to involve the Government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Weyerhaeuser Timber Company has caused its corporate name and seal to be hereunto subscribed and affixed, and this easement to be executed by its General Manager, duly authorized, this 14th day of April 1919.
