

of the said deceased, said affidavit setting forth that the notice so annexed was published in said newspaper four weeks successively, commencing on the 15th day of August, 1914, and ending on the 12th day of September, 1914, and the Court having examined the said affidavit and notice, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the said notice is in the proper form and has been duly published in accordance with law and the order of this Court, heretofore duly made and entered herein;

And the said executor having also duly returned and filed herein his inventory of said estate, and the appraisement of the property therein described, together with proof of due and personal service of the notice of the time and place of said appraisement upon the State Board of Tax Commissioners, as required by law; also a stipulation entered into by and between said executor and said Board, wherein and whereby it is stipulated and agreed that no part of said estate is liable for, or chargeable with, an inheritance tax;

And it appearing to the Court that the said Amelia D. Hallock died leaving her surviving as her sole and only heirs at law, legatees and devisees, her husband, George E. Hallock, and the following named four children, to-wit, Matie L. Buchanan, nee Hallock, Edna Hallock, Raymond G. Hallock and George O. Hallock being all and the only children of said deceased, and that there are no descendants of any deceased child or children of said deceased;

And it further appearing to the Court that the whole of the estate of said deceased, separate and community, has been duly appraised by the duly appointed, qualified and acting appraisers of said estate at the total sum of Seventeen Thousand Four Hundred Thirty and 50/100 Dollars (\$17,430.50), which sum is the market value of the property, and said appraisement was fairly and in good faith made; that the separate property of said deceased, described as the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ and the S $\frac{1}{2}$ of the S. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of the N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 21, Township 3 N. of Range 8 East, W. M., situated in Skamania County, State of Washington, has been appraised at the sum of \$1500.00, and the community property of said deceased and her said surviving husband, all situated in said King County, has been appraised at the sum of \$15,930.50 as aforesaid; that, in accordance with law and the terms of said Will, the whole of said estate will pass to and be distributed to the said surviving husband and children of said deceased hereinabove named; that the community interest of the said surviving husband therein is not subject to or chargeable with any inheritance tax, and that the residue of said estate, after the payment of claims and expenses of administration, does not exceed \$10,000.00, and that no part of said estate is subject to or liable for any inheritance tax; that all claims against said estate, which have been presented, funeral expenses and expenses of administration, have been paid by said executor, and that said estate is fully solvent; now, therefore, by reason of the law and the facts aforesaid, it is Considered, Ordered, Adjudged and Decreed that due and legal notice to the creditors of Amelia D. Hallock, deceased, has been given by due publication of a proper notice at least once a week for four successive weeks pursuant to the order of this Court, in the aforesaid newspaper, and that the first publication of said notice was made on the 15th day of August, 1914; and that the time for the presentation of claims against the said estate will expire on the 15th day of August, 1915;
