Amelia D. Hallock, } Order.
Deceased. }

This matter having come on regularly for hearing in open Court upon the petition of George E. Hallock, for a construction and order on the terms and intent of the last will and testament of Amelia D. Hallock, deceased, and the Court having examined said petition of the said George E. Hallock and having heard the testimony in open Court of the said George E. Hallock to the effect that George O. Hallock, was and is the youngest of all of the heirs and legatees of the said Amelia D. Hallock, deceased, and that the said George O. Hallock became Thirty years of age on the 4th day of Sep. 1917 and that the said George E. Hallock and all of the other heirs and legatees of the said Amelia D. Hallock, deceased, to-wit: George E. Hallock; Matie Buchanan, formerly Matie Hallock; Edna Hallock; Raymond G. Hallock and the said George O. Hallock, on the 31st day of December, A.D. 1918, sold and deeded away a portion of said estate, in Skamania County, Washington, described in the petition of the said George E. Hallock filed herein; and the Court having examined the said last will and testament of the said Amelia D. Hallock, deceased and duly considered the terms and intent of same and having considered the said petition and testimony of the said George E. Hallock; and being fully advised in the premises hereby construes the terms of said will and finds as follows:

That the said George O. Hallock is the youngest of the heirs and legatees of the said Amelia D. Hallock, deceased, and that he became Thirty years of age on the 4th day of Sep. 1917 and that by the terms and intent and proper
