

together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or appertaining.

To Have and To Hold the said premises with the appurtenances unto the said mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever.

This mortgage is intended to secure the payment of one promissory note of which the following is a substantial copy:

$3723.00

Portland, Oregon Oct. 25, 1927.

For value received I promise to pay to R. S. McFarland or order Three thousand seven hundred twenty-three ($3723.00) Dollars in Gold Coin of the United States of America, with interest thereon in like Gold Coin at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from date until paid, payable in annual installments of not less than $500.00 in any one payment, including the full amount of interest due on this note at time of payment of each installment. The first payment to be made on the first day of November 1928, and a like payment on the first day of November thereafter, until the whole sum, principal and interest, has been paid; if any of said installments are not so paid, the whole sum of both principal and interest to become immediately due and collectible. In case suit or action is instituted to collect this note, or any portion thereof, I promise to pay such additional sum as the Court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fees in said suit or action.

And said mortgagors covenant to and with the mortgagee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, that they are lawfully seized in fee simple of said premises and have a valid, unencumbered title thereto and will Warrant and forever DEFend the same against all persons; that they will pay said note, principal and interest, according to the terms thereof; that while any part of said note remains unpaid they will pay all taxes, assessments and other charges of every nature which may be levied or assessed against said property, or this mortgage or the note above described, when due and payable and before the same may become delinquent; that they will promptly pay and satisfy any and all liens or encumbrances that are or may become liens on the premises or any part thereof superior to the lien of this mortgage; that they will keep the buildings now on or which may be hereafter erected on the premises insured in favor of the mortgagee against loss or damage by fire in the sum of $1500.00 in such company or companies as the said mortgagee may designate and will have all policies of insurance on said property made payable to the mortgagee as their interest may appear and will deliver all policies of insurance on said premises to the said mortgagee as soon as insured; that they will keep the buildings and improvements on said premises in good repair and will not commit or suffer any waste of said premises.

Now, therefore, if said mortgagors shall keep and perform the covenants herein contained and shall pay said note according to its terms, this conveyance shall be void, but otherwise shall remain in full force as a mortgage to secure the performance of all of said covenants and the payment of said note; it being agreed that a failure to perform any covenant herein, or if proceeding of any kind be taken to foreclose any lien on said premises or any part thereof the mortgagee shall have the option to declare the whole amount unpaid on said note or on this mortgage at once due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed at any time thereafter. And if the mortgagors shall fail to pay any taxes or charges or any lien, encumbrance or insurance premium as above provided for, the mortgagee may at his option do so, and any payment so made shall be added to and become a part of the debt secured by this mortgage, and shall bear interest at the same rate as said note, without waiver, however, of any right arising to the mortgagee, for breach of covenant. And this mortgage may be foreclosed for principal, interest and all sums paid by the mortgagee at any time while the mortgagors neglects to repay any sums so paid by the mortgagee. And if suit be commenced to foreclose this mortgage, the attorney's fees provided for in said note shall be included in the lien of this mortgage.
