

In any suit or other proceeding which may be had for the recovery of the amount due on either said note or this mortgage, the party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to have included in the judgment which may be recovered such sum as the court may adjudge reasonable as attorney's fee, to be taxed as part of the costs in such suit as well as all payments which the said party of the second part, his heirs, administrators, executors and assigns may be obliged to make for his or their security by insurance or on account of any taxes, charges, incumbrances or assessments whatsoever on said premises or any part thereof.

In case of foreclosure of this mortgage the party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns shall be entitled to have entered in such foreclosure suit a judgment for any deficiency remaining due upon account of the indebtedness secured hereby, including taxes, insurances, or other lawful assessments after applying the proceeds of the sale of the premises above described to the payment thereof, and to the costs of such foreclosure suit.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the party of the first part has caused these presences to be duly executed by its lawfully authorized officers the day and year first above written.
