On this 23d day of September, 1930 before me personally appeared W.G. Littleton and H.W. Woodward to me personally known and to me known to be a Vice-President and assistant secretary, respectively, of Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company, the corporation which executed the within and foregoing instrument, who, being duly affirmed, did say that he, the said W.G. Littleton, is vice-president and that he the said H.W. Woodward, is assistant secretary of said Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and which executed the foregoing instrument, that the said Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Company is the successor as Trustee in title and estate to Fidelity Trust Company, and, as such successor is duly authorized and empowered to execute the foregoing instrument of release; and that the seal affixed to said instrument is the corporate seal of said corporation and that they were authorized to execute said instrument, and that said instrument was signed and sealed in behalf of said corporation by authority of its board of directors, and said W.G. Littleton and said H.W. Woodward duly acknowledged said instrument to be the free and voluntary act and deed of said corporation for the uses and purposes therein mentioned.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal the day and year first above written.
