

Satisfaction recorded Dec. 19, 1934 in Book "J" of Mts. at page 409. C. A. C.

This Conveyance is intended as a mortgage to secure the payment of Eleven Hundred Forty-Seven & 27/100 ($1147.27) Dollars, lawful money of the United States, together with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from date until paid, according to the terms and conditions of one certain promissory note, bearing date July 1st, 1930, made by the parties of the first part hereto, payable in monthly installments of $15.00 each commencing August 1st, 1930 with privilege to pay all or any part of principal before maturity, after date to the order of J. H. Zevely and these presents shall be void if such payment be made according to the terms and conditions thereof. But in case default be made in the payment of the principal or interest of said promissory note, or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms and conditions thereof, then the said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns may immediately thereafter, in the manner provided by law, foreclose this mortgage for the whole amount due upon said principal and interest, with all the other sums hereby secured.

In any suit or other proceeding which may be had for the recovery of the amount due, on either said note or this mortgage, said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall have the right to have included in the judgment which may be recovered, the sum of $"reasonable as attorney's fees, to be taxed as part of the costs in such suit as well as all payments which said party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns may be obliged to make for him or their security by insurance or on account of any taxes, charges, incumbrances or assessments whatsoever on the said premises or any part thereof.

The parties of the first part agree to keep the property insured in the sum of $1300.00 payable to the party of the second part as his interests may appear.

In case of the foreclosure of this mortgage, the party of the second part, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall be entitled to have entered in such foreclosure suit a judgment for any deficiency remaining due upon account of the indebtedness secured hereby, including taxes, insurance or other lawful assessments after applying the proceeds of the sale of the premises above described to the payment thereof, and to the costs of such foreclosure suit.

In Witness Whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.
