

discretion, at any time and from time to time make advances to effect performance of the same on behalf of the Company, but neither Trustee shall be under any obligation so to do; and any and all moneys paid or advanced by the Trustees or either of them for any such purpose, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum, shall be repaid by the Company upon demand and shall be secured under this Indenture by a lien in favor of the Trustees upon the trust estate prior to the lien of the Bonds and coupons; but no such advance shall operate to relieve the Company from any default hereunder.

SECTION 95. The Trustees or either of them may resign and be discharged from the trusts created by this Indenture by giving written notice thereof to the Company (and to the other Trustee, if only one of them shall so resign) at least 30 days prior to the effective date thereof, or such shorter time as may be accepted by the Company as sufficient notice.

The corporate Trustee may be removed at any time by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing signed by the holders of at least a majority in amount of the Bonds then outstanding.

The individual Trustee may be removed at any time by the corporate Trustee and the Company, by an instrument in writing executed by them jointly, or in case any of the events of default specified in Article Twelve hereof shall have happened and shall not have been remedied, the corporate Trustee may remove the individual Trustee by an instrument in writing executed by it without the concurrence of the Company.

SECTION 96. In case at any time the individual Trustee shall die, resign or be removed as hereinabove provided or otherwise become incapable of acting, a successor to such individual Trustee may be appointed by the corporate Trustee and the Company by an instrument in writing executed by them jointly, or in case any of the events of default specified in Article Twelve hereof shall have happened and shall not have been remedied, the corporate Trustee may appoint such a successor without the concurrence of the Company. Every such successor shall be an individual who is a citizen of the United States.

In case at any time The Chase National Bank of the City of New York or any corporate Trustee hereafter appointed shall resign or be removed or otherwise become incapable of acting, a successor to such corporate Trustee may be appointed by the holders of at least a majority in amount of the Bonds then outstanding by an instrument or concurrent instruments in writing signed by such Bondholders or by their duly authorized attorneys-in-fact if such appointment by such Bondholders be made prior to the expiration of 12 months after the completion of the publication of notice of an appointment by the Company as hereinafter provided. Unless and until a new corporate Trustee shall be appointed by the Bondholders as herein authorized, the Company, by an instrument in writing executed by order of its Board of Directors, shall appoint a corporate Trustee to fill such vacancy.

After any such appointment by the Company, it shall publish notice of such appointment once in each of 2 successive calendar weeks in one daily newspaper printed in the English language and published and of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan. The City of New York, and in one daily newspaper printed in the English language and published and of general circulation in the City of Portland, Oregon, and in one daily newspaper printed in the English language and published and of general circulation in each of such other cities, if any, in which the principal of or the interest on any of the Bonds at the time outstanding hereunder shall be payable (in each instance upon any secular day of the week and in any such newspaper). Any new corporate Trustee so appointed by the Company
