

as provided in this Indenture and not otherwise, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver the same.

In case any officer who shall have signed sealed or attested any of said bonds shall cease to be an officer of the Company before the bonds so signed, sealed or attested shall have been authenticated or delivered by the Trustee or issued, such bonds may nevertheless be issued, authenticated and/or delivered as though such person who signed, sealed or attested such bonds had not ceased to be an officer of the Company, and also any bond may be signed, sealed or attested on behalf of the Company by such persons as at the actual date of the execution of such bond shall be the proper officers of the Company, although at the date of such bond such persons were not officers of the Company.

The coupons to be attached to the bonds shall be authenticated by the facsimile signature of the present Treasurer or of any future Treasurer of the Company, and, for that purpose, the Company may adopt and use the facsimile signature of any person who shall have been such a Treasurer notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be such Treasurer at the time when such bonds shall be actually authenticated, delivered and issued.

Only such of the bonds (whether temporary or definitive) as shall have been authenticated by the Trustee, by signing the certificate endorsed thereon, shall be secured by this Indenture, or shall be entitled to any lien or benefit hereunder, and such certificate of the Trustee shall be conclusive evidence and the only evidence that the bonds so authenticated have been duly issued hereunder, and are entitled to the benefit of the trusts hereby created.

Section 10. The Company shall keep books at the office of the Trustee for the registration and transfer of registered bonds without coupons, and coupon bonds which are registerable as to principal as in this Indenture provided. Such books shall, in addition to the name of the holder of each registered bond, show the address of each such holder.

The holder of any coupon bond expressed to be registerable as to principal may have such bond registered in his name on the said books at the office of the Trustee, and such registration shall be noted on each such registered bond by the Trustee acting as Registrar. The registered holder of any such bond registered as to principal shall have the right to have the same discharged from registration and made payable to bearer, in which case transferability by delivery shall be restored, and thereafter the principal of such bond, when due, shall be payable to the person presenting the bond. Any such bond registered as payable to bearer may be registered again in the name of the holder with the same effect as upon first registration thereof. Successive registrations and discharges from registration as aforesaid may be made from time to time as desired. Registration as to principal of any bond, however, shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons appertaining to such bond, but title to every such coupon shall continue to pass by delivery and it shall remain payable to bearer.

Such registrations and discharges from registration shall be made under such reasonable regulations as the Company may prescribe and for which the Company may make a charge sufficient to reimburse it for any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect thereto and the charges of the Trustee, all such charges to be paid by the party requesting such registration or discharge from registration, as a condition precedent to the exercise of such privilege.

No transfer of registered bonds without coupons or of coupon bonds at the time registered as to principal shall be valid unless made on said books by the registered holder in person, or by his duly authorized attorney, and similarly noted on the bond. Upon presentation to the Trustee of any coupon bond registered as to principal accompanied by
