

directs that she be not required to give bonds as such.

That your petitioner, widow of decedent, residing at 888 Lovejoy Street, Portland, Oregon, aged about sixty-five years, and Helen G. Harmon, daughter of decedent and your petitioner, who died on the 5th day of April, 1922, were the sole devisees and legatees mentioned in said will and that your petitioner is now the sole heir at law of the decedent.

That Richard W. Montague and Henrietta M. Abbott, both of Portland, Oregon, are the witnesses to said will; that at the time the will was executed the testator was of the age of about fifty-four years, of sound and disposing mind, not under restraint, undue influence or fraudulent misrepresentation, and in every respect competent by last will to dispose of all his estate, and that the will was executed in all respects according to law and is entitled to be admitted to probate as the true and genuine last will and testament of the decedent.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that said will, herewith propounded, may be admitted to probate and proved as the true and genuine last will and testament of the decedent and that letters testamentary be issued to your petitioner upon her taking the oath required by law, and that all other necessary and proper orders may be made in the premises.

Dated this 11th day of April, 1922.

I, EDDIE L. HARMON, of the City of Portland, County of Multnomah and State of Oregon, being of full age and sound and disposing mind, do hereby make, publish and declare this my hereby revoking any and all former wills or testamentary dispositions at any time made by me:

First: To my beloved wife, ELIZABETH H. HARMON, I give, devise and bequeath our homestead, Lot 1, Block 2, Nob Hill Terrace, Multnomah County, Oregon, together with the household goods and furniture therein contained and appertaining thereto.

Second: After payment of all my just debts and proper charges against my estate I give, devise, and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, to my said wife and to my daughter, HELEN G. HARMON, in equal shares, share and share alike.

Third: In case of the death of either of them before this Will shall take effect then the entire estate herein devised or bequeathed shall go to the other.

Fourth: I nominate my said wife and daughter extrices of this Will and direct that they be not required to give bonds as such.
