

JOHNSON-COK COMPANY, PRINTERS, TACOMA, WASH.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON

FOR THE COUNTY OF MULTNOMAH

DEPARTMENT OF PROBATE

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE)

OF)

ELIZABETH H. HARMON, DECEASED)

PETITION TO ADMIT WILL TO PROBATE.

To the Honorable George Tazwell, Judge of the above mentioned Court:

Comes now Richard W. Montague, your petitioner, and respectfully alleges that Elizabeth H. Harmon died on the 26th day of September, 1927, at Portland, Oregon, aged about seventy years. At the time of her death and for many years before she had been an inhabitant and resident of the City of Portland, County of Multnomah and State of Oregon, and left an estate therein of a value which your petitioner cannot now estimate.

That said Elizabeth H. Harmon left a will bearing date the 27th day of January, 1926, in the possession of your petitioner, which your petitioner believes and alleges to be the last will and testament of said decedent and which is herewith propounded for probate; that your petitioner Richard W. Montague is named in said will as executor thereof, and said will directs that he be not required to give bond as such.

That Jennie A. Brosseau, aged about 76 years, and Edith M. Brosseau, aged about 59 years, sisters of decedent, residing in Portland, Oregon, and George A. Brosseau, aged about 79 years, brother of decedent, residing in Bellingham, Washington, are the sole heirs at law of said decedent, and that said heirs at law, together with Reed Institute, an educational corporation under the laws of the State of Oregon with its principal office in Portland; Art Association of Portland, Oregon, a like corporation; University of Oregon, a like corporation having its principal office in the City of Eugene; Library Association of Portland, a like corporation, the Visiting Nurse Association, a like corporation, the Fruit and Flower Mission, a like corporation, the last three having their principal offices in Portland, Oregon; J. B. King, (son of Bertley C. King,) of Oregon City, Oregon; and Dwight M. Brosseau, a nephew of the decedent, resident in Bellingham, Washington, are the sole legatees and devisees mentioned in said will.

That the witnesses to said will are your petitioner, Gertrude Gray (now Gertrude Gray Stam), and M. M. Matthiessen; that at the time the will was executed the testator was of the age of about sixty-nine years, of sound and disposing mind, not under restraint, undue influence or fraudulent misrepresentation, and in every respect competent by last will to dispose of all her estate, and that the will was executed in all respects according to law and is entitled to be admitted to probate as the true and genuine last will and testament of the decedent.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that said will, herewith propounded, may be admitted to probate and proved as the true and genuine last will and testament of decedent, and that letters testamentary be issued to your petitioner upon his taking the oath required by law, and that all other necessary and proper orders be made in the premises.

DATED this 30th day of September, 1927.

RICHARD W. MONTAGUE
Petitioner.
