

JOHNSON-COX COMPANY, PRINTERS, TACOMA, WASH. 98114

LASTLY, I nominate and appoint RICHARD W. MONTAGUE to be executor of this will and direct that he be not required to give bonds as such, requesting that he cause the estate to be administered and settled as rapidly as is consistent with proper and businesslike collection or realization upon the assets.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and published and declared this instrument to be my last will and testament, in the presence of the witnesses whose names are hereto appended, at Portland, Oregon, on this, the 27th day of January, 1926.

ELIZABETH H. HARMON

The above and foregoing will, consisting of this and three other pages, each signed by the testator and signed or initialed by the witnesses, was by the testator, Elizabeth H. Harmon, in our presence signed and sealed and published and declared to be her last will and testament, at Portland, Oregon, on the day and year therein last written, and we, at her request, in her presence and the presence of each other, have hereunto set our names as witnesses.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE)

OF)

ELIZABETH H. HARMON, DECEASED)

No. _____

ORDER ADMITTING WILL TO PROBATE.

Now at this time coming on to be heard the petition of Richard W. Montague for probate of the will of Elizabeth H. Harmon, deceased, it appearing to the court that said Elizabeth H. Harmon died in the City of Portland, County of Multnomah and State of Oregon, on the 26th day of September, 1927; that at and for many years before her death she had been a resident and inhabitant of said city, state and county and left estate therein, the names, ages and residences of her legatees, devisees and heirs at law being stated in said petition; and it appearing to the court from the testimony adduced in support thereof that the will propounded for probate by said petitioner is the true and genuine last will and testament of the decedent; that it was executed in all respects according to law; that the decedent at the time of the execution thereof was of full age, to-wit, of the age of about 69 years, of sound and disposing mind, not subject to any restraint, duress, undue influence or fraudulent misrepresentation, and the subscribing witnesses to said will having testified and filed their testimony herein;

IT IS THEREFORE NOW HERE ORDERED that said will now propounded for probate be and the same is hereby admitted to probate and proved as and is now here decreed to be the true and genuine last will and testament of said Elizabeth H. Harmon, deceased.

It further appearing to the court that Richard W. Montague is named in said will as executor thereof without bonds;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that he be and hereby is appointed executor of the last will of Elizabeth H. Harmon, deceased, and that letters testamentary issue to him herein upon his filing the oath required by law.

Done in open court this 1st day of October, 1927.
