Almeda T. Bowles,
Executrix of said Estate.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
FOR KING COUNTY
(In Probate)

In the matter of the Estate)	No. 34428
of	{	Approval of Final Account and Order
Charles D. Bowles, Deceased		of Distribution.

The final account and petition of Almeda T. Dinsmoor, (formerly Almeda T. Bowles) executrix of the estate of Charles D. Bowles, deceased, praying that said account be allowed, approved and settled, and that distribution of the residue of the estate in the hands of said executrix be made to the persons entitled thereto under the terms of the last will and testament of said decedent and the agreement of the parties interested in said estate, coming regularly on for hearing before the undersigned Judge on the 24th day of January, 1929, said executrix appearing by her attorneys, Messrs. Cosgrove & Terhune, and a witness being sworn and examined in open court; and it appearing to the court that due and legal notice of such hearing has been given as directed by order of this court, to-wit, by posting written notices in three of the most public places in King County, State of Washington, at least twenty-five days preceding said time appointed for the settlement of said final account and distribution of said estate, and by publishing a similar notice once a week for three successive weeks preceding said day of hearing in the Daily Journal of Commerce, a newspaper printed and published in King County, State of Washington, and of general circulation therein, each of which said notices sets forth in substance that the final account and petition for distribution in said estate has been filed with the Clerk of the above entitled court, and that said court is asked to settle such report, distribute the property of said estate to the persons entitled thereto and discharge said executrix;

And it further appearing to the court that the time for service and filing claims against said estate has long since passed, and that the only claim so served and filed, and approved by said executrix and this court, has been paid in full, and that the executrix has paid all of the expenses of administration of said estate, including the fees of the attorneys for the estate in the States of Washington and Oregon, the inheritance tax due the States of Washington and Oregon in said estate, and the inheritance tax due the United States of America upon said estate, and that said executrix has waived any compensation for her services as executrix, and that there are now no claims or debts whatsoever outstanding against the said decedent or his estate;

And it further appearing that certain stocks and bonds belonging to the estate of said
