

As used in this Section, the term "security" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and in force on the date of the execution of this Indenture; the term "cash transaction" shall mean any transaction in which full payment for goods or securities sold is made within seven days after delivery of the goods or securities in currency or in checks or other orders drawn upon banks or bankers and payable upon demand; the term "self-liquidating paper" shall mean any draft, bill of exchange, acceptance or obligation which is made, drawn, negotiated or incurred by the Company for the purpose of financing the purchase, processing, manufacture, shipment, storage or sale of goods, wares or merchandise and which is secured by documents evidencing title to, possession of, or a lien upon, the goods, wares or merchandise or the receivables or proceeds arising from the sale of the goods, wares or merchandise previously constituting the security, provided the security is received by such Trustee simultaneously with the creation of the creditor relationship with the Company arising from the making, drawing, negotiating or incurring of the draft, bill of exchange, acceptance or obligation; and the term "Trustee" shall include the Corporate Trustee, the Co-Trustee, and any separate trustee or co-trustee appointed pursuant to Section 103 hereof.

Section 99. (a) If any Trustee has or acquires any conflicting interest, as defined by subdivision (d) of this Section, such Trustee shall within ninety (90) days after ascertaining that it has such conflicting interest, either eliminate such conflicting interest or resign by giving written notice to the Company, but such resignation shall not become effective until the appointment of a successor trustee and such successor's acceptance of such appointment. The Company covenants to take prompt steps to have a successor appointed in the manner hereinafter provided in Section 102 hereof. Upon giving such notice of resignation, the resigning Trustee shall publish notice thereof in one newspaper printed in the English language and customarily published on each business day and of general circulation in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, once in each of three successive calendar weeks, in each case on any business day of the week. If the resigning Trustee fails to publish such notice within ten (10) days after giving written notice of resignation to the Company, the Company shall publish such notice.

(b) In the event that any Trustee shall fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding subdivision (a) of this Section, such Trustee shall within ten (10) days after the expiration of such ninety (90) days period transmit notice of such failure to the bondholders in the manner and to the extent provided in subdivision (c) of Section 100 hereof with respect to reports pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 100 hereof.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 122 hereof any bondholder who has been a bona fide holder of a bond or bonds for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of any Trustee and the appointment of a successor if such Trustee fails, after written request therefor by such holder, to comply with the provisions of subdivision (a) of this Section.

(d) Any Trustee shall be deemed to have a conflicting interest if--

(1) such Trustee is trustee under another indenture under which any other securities, or certificates of interest or participation in any other securities, of the Company, are outstanding unless such other indenture is a collateral trust indenture under which the only collateral consists of bonds issued under this Indenture; provided that there shall be excluded from the operation of this paragraph (1) another indenture or indentures under which other securities, or certificates of interest or participation in other securities, of the Company are outstanding, if the Company shall have to the Securities and Exchange Commission and after opportunity sustained the burden of proving, on application/for hearing thereon, that trusteeship
