Benedict Luscher by John Franz to The Public

STATE OF WASHINGTON)
COUNTY OF SKAMANIA) ss

John Franz, being first duly sworn says: I was acquainted with Benedict Luscher, the grantee named in that certain deed from John Mackey and wife, recorded at page 164 Book E of Deeds, records of Skamania County, Washington, and know that on the date of said deed, to-wit on the 11th day of October 1894 he was a single man; I was also acquainted with Louisa Entner, the grantee named in that certain deed from Benedict Luscher recorded at page 462 Book E of deeds, records of said Skamania County; at the date of said deed, to-wit on the 26th day of December 1896 she was a single woman; thereafter she married my brother, Nick Franz from whom she was divorced prior to 1906; she thereafter married one Abner St. Ores to whom she was married on April 19th, 1906, the date of deed from Louise St. Ores to Jacob Franz, recorded at page 251 Book L of Deeds, records of said Skamania County. The said Louisa Entner-St. Ores did not reside upon the property described in the said deed to Jacob Franz after her marriage to the said St. Ores, and the said Abner St. Ores never acquired any equity or right in said property to my knowledge. Louisa Entner and Louise St. Ores was one and the same person.

John Franz
