Sworn to before me and signed in my presence this 9th day of April, 1912.

Homer O. Dorsey, Probate Judge.

Inventory and Appraisement. Estate of Margaret Knapp, Deceased.

Schedule D. Personal Goods and Chattels.

The following personal goods and chattels, belonging to the estate of/said decedent which are assets in the hands of the said Executrix as exhibited to us, we appraise as follows: No personal chattels.

Schedule E.

The following is an account of all moneys, whether in specie or bank bills, or other circulating medium, belonging to the said deceased; which have come to the hands of the said Executrix: No money of any kind.

Schedule F.

The following is a particular statement of all Bonds, Mortgages, Notes and all other securities for the payment of money belonging to the decedent which are known to said Executrix:

These notes with nos. 1-4-5 above are in judgment in favor of the testatrix against Wm. Heckert in the Court of Common Pleas of Lucas County. A decree was later rendered by said Court ordering the sale of Real Estate in Lucas County, and applying the proceeds to the payment of this judgment. On appeal, the Circuit Court of said County found that the Real estate was not the property of the debtor Wm. Heckert but of his wife, and dismissed the case at costs of testatrix. Error is now pending in Supreme Court of Ohio from Circuit
