No. P-1302
Order settling and approving final
Account and Decree of Distribution

This matter coming on for hearing this day upon the petition and application of Arvilla Moore, the Administratrix of the Estate of Charles D. Moore, deceased, for an order approving and settling her final account and for a decree of distribution of said estate; and it satisfactorily appearing to the court that said final account has been heretofore filed in this court, and that due and legal notice of this hearing upon said final account and petition for distribution, has been given; by publishing notice of this hearing once a week for three successive weeks in the White Salmon Enterprise, a weekly newspaper printed, published and having a general circulation in White Salmon, and in Klickitat County, Washington and legally qualified to publish said notice, as more fully appears from the Affidavit of A. Meresse, publisher of said newspaper, and by the posting of three said notices of said hearing in the manner and for the time as required by law, as more fully appears by the affidavit of posting of W. S. Warwick, Sheriff of Klickitat County, Washington; said notices as posted and published being published and posted more than twenty-five days prior to the date of this hearing, and both affidavits on file herein; and it appearing therefrom that this is the time and place appointed for the hearing upon said petition and final account and no objections having been filed in this court and no person now appearing to object to said final account and petition for distribution, in said estate; Arvilla Moore, the administratrix of said estate now appearing in person before the court and by her attorney, Robt. W. Carver; it further appearing that all of the heirs of said estate are over the age of twenty-one years; and it further appearing that ^{the} said Arvilla Moore is the duly, regularly and legally appointed, qualified and acting administratrix of said estate; that notice to creditors has been given in the manner and form and for the time as required by law; that all funeral expenses, expenses of last sickness and taxes have been paid in full
