

SKAMANIA COUNTY, WASHINGTON

said deed, granted said land, reserving for themselves during the rest of their lives the right respectively to enjoy the use of a camping place on said land, the same to be chosen by the said grantors. Also the said grantors were given the privilege and they reserved the same of bathing in Collins Spring. I further say that the land lying within the area to be flooded by the Bonneville Dam is unsuitable for camping purposes and that I will never use said land lying within the area to be flooded by the Bonneville Project, nor will I ever use Collins Spring for bathing. I further say that I prelinquish all right, title and interest in and to that portion of the above described land lying within the area to be flooded by said Bonneville Project.
