No. P. 1890

PETITION FOR DECREE OF SOLVENCY.

Comes now C. E. Crooks, the duly appointed, qualified and acting executor of the above entitled estate and represents to the court as follows:

That the last will and testament of the above named deceased provides that this estate shall be settled in the manner provided in said last will and testament and without the intervention of any court or courts other than what is necessary under the non-intervention law.

That said estate has been duly appraised; that notice to creditors has been published and the time for presenting claims has nearly expired; that this petitioner has knowledge of all claims presented, and does not believe that any more claims will be presented, and that there will be plenty of money on hands to pay all claims and the costs and expenses of administration, and that said estate is clearly solvent.

WHEREFORE petitioner prays that an order be entered declaring said estate solvent.

C. W. Ramsey
Attorney for Estate.
