C. W. DeGraff to the Public

STATE OF OREGON )
County of Multnomah ) ss.

I, C. W. DeGraff, being first duly sworn, depose and say: That I am Vice President of Portland Trust and Savings Bank, an Oregon corporation, and that I have been employed by said Company for 31 years; that I am acquainted with the property over which said Portland Trust and Savings Bank granted United States of America a flowage easement under date of September 1, 1937, said property<sup>involved</sup>/being in Skamania County, Washington, and more particularly described in said flowage easement.

That to my knowledge there are no vested or accrued water rights affecting said lands, nor are said lands subject to the right of a proprietor of a vein or lode to extract and remove ore therefrom, nor are there any rights of way for ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States, on said lands; nor are there any vested or accrued water rights in third persons, nor are there any parties in possession, not shown of record, nor are there any questions of survey or boundary disputes affecting said land; and neither are there any mechanics' lien claims, not shown of record, against said lands.

I make this affidavit for the purpose of meeting certain requirements as pointed out in the Attorney General's opinion under date of October 4, 1937, relative to the above mentioned flowage easement.

C. W. DeGraff

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of December, 1937.
