Claimants.

No. 2363

JUDGMENT AND DECREE OF APPROPRIATION

This cause came on duly and regularly for trial on the 11th day of September, 1936, before the above entitled court, a jury having been waived. Petitioner appeared by John Wilkinson, Messrs. Carey, Hart, Spencer and McCulloch and Mr. Philip Chipman, its attorneys; a stipulation signed by claimant Northwestern Electric Company by Messrs. John A. Laing and Henry S. Gray, its attorneys, was presented to the court; all other claimants appeared by Mr. Raymond C. Sly., their attorney,

The stipulations filed herein by the respective parties were presented to the court, and the court having heard evidence as to the value of the premises and having heretofore been satisfied by competent proof that the contemplated use for which said land is sought to be appropriated is a public use for railroad purposes of the petitioner, and having accordingly made and entered in this action its order adjudicating necessity for appropriation,

NOW, THEREFORE, the court being fully advised, it is CONSIDERED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company, a corporation, petitioner herein, shall, upon payment of the sums hereinafter provided, be and become the owner in fee of the following described premises in Skamania County, Washington:
