THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WHEREAS. There has been deposited in the General Land (lifes of the United States, a Certificate of the logister of the Land fillies at	HOMESTEAD CERTIFICAT	$\rightarrow SS_{i}$,
WHEREAS. There has been deposited in the General Land Office of the limited States, in Certificate of the Register of the Land filling at			to Museumta aball Manna Munatina.
auriting to the Official Plot of the Survey of the said Lang, externed to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General. NOW, KNOW VE, That there is, therefore, pasted by the distribution and shape according to the White Sort of the Surveyor General. NOW, KNOW VE, That there is, therefore, pasted by the distribution of the solid according to the thirty of the said Lang, with the superiorments where the said Lang continued to the continued t	WHEREAS There h	- ,	•
cording to the Official Plat of the Sarvey of the said Landy returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General. NOW, KNOW TE. That there is, therefore, growted by the Vinice States unto the said. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tested of land, with the proper tensores the experiment in such water when the proper tensores the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of land, with the property of the said tested of the said tested and constructed by the analysis of the land tested said tested to the said tested tested to the said tested tested tested to the said tested tested to the said tested tested tested. IN TISTIMONY WHEREOF, I. Now, Kandward of the landspraid of the landspraid of the United States of Analysis and the said tested of the Cantral Land Giftee to be landspraid to the landspraid of the landspraid of the Cantral Land Giftee to be landspraid to the landspraid of the land			  cording to the Official Plas of the Survey of the soid Lind, externed to the General Land Office by the Surveyor Occural. NOW, KNOW VE, That there is, therefore, granted by the Galical States with the soid. NOW, KNOW VE, That there is, therefore, granted by the Galical States with the soid. The HAVE AND TO HOLD the soid treet of lead, with the appartenance thereof, with the soid. The HAVE AND TO HOLD the soid treet of lead, with the appartenance thereof, with the soid. The HAVE AND TO HOLD the soid treet of lead, with the appartenance thereof, with the soid lead with the soid of lead of the soid of lead of the soid of lead of the lead of the soid of of			• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • cording to the Official Plat of the Survey of the said Land, returned to the Ceneral Land Office by the Surveyor General. NOW, KNOW YE. That there is, therefore, granted by the butted States into the said
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of		•
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of			7. 1. 7.
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of		- K
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of		- J
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of		~ ~ ~
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of			_ () /
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of	,
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of) (
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of		, a
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and enued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of	ccording to the Official Pla	t of the Survey of the said Land	returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and crued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and first to ditches and reservoirs used in connection it such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon reditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of , in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By the President By the President of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M, A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of the Control of the co crued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection it it such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of ,, in the year of our Lord one thousand ,, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. By Secretary. Filed for Record at O'clock M., A. D. 190 ,, and Recorded at the request of the content of the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon r ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand. And of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and by the President By the President By the President A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of the request of the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted a right of way thereon reduction to the united States of way thereon reduction to the United States of the United States the one hundred and by the President By the President A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of the General Land Office.	eccrued water rights for m	ining, agricultural, manufacturin	ng or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection
IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I,	o the right of the proprie	ctor of a vein or lode, to extra	net and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or
America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand and and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of the content of the content of the content of the content of the request of the content	ntersect the premises here or ditches or canals constru	by granted, as provided by law, acted by the authority of the Uni	and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon ted States.
hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of in the year of our Lord one thousand. and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of the content of the request of the request of the content of the request of the request of the request of the request of the content of the request of the req		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
, in the year of our Lord one thousand , and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at O'clock M., A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of	ENER	America, have caused these hereunto affixed	e letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be
By the President By Corded Vol. Page Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at O'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of	LES GENEMAL LA	Given under my han	- and By the President By Secretary. Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190 , and Recorded at the request of	80
Secretary. Pecorded Vol. Page Recorder of the General Land Office. Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of)FFIC		-
Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of	145 13/	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Filed for Record at o'clock M., A. D. 190, and Recorded at the request of	·	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	BySecretary.
Filed for Record ato'clock	Recorded Vol	Page	Recorder of the General Land Office.
		•••	, and Recorded at the request of
	3 y	Deputy.	