THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

WHEELES, There has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a Certificate of the Register of the Landice at whereby it appears that, personant to the Act is suggested and the sets of the Committee of		To all to Whom these Presents shall Come, Greeting:
stoording to the Official Plat of the Survey of the said Land, networks as the Ceneral Land Office by the Surveyor General: NOW, KNOW LEY, That there is, therefore, granted by the Vinited States and to the said. Now, KNOW LEY, That there is, therefore, granted by the Vinited States and to the said. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appartenances thereof, and to the said. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appartenances thereof, and to the said and the same triples for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and reflects to disches and exercive water rights for mining, agricultural manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to to disches and exercive water rights as may be recognized and and to be less that the said the said that the said of the land of the said tract of land, which the appartenances therefore, should the same be found to propriet or disches or enable constructed by the authority of the United States of the States the one hundred which is the States of the States of the United States the one hundred states. By Recorder of the Ceneral Land Office to be secondarded Vol. I'mpe Recorder of the General Land Office to the States of the States of the States of the United States the one hundred states. By Recorder of the General Land Office to the States of the States of the States of the States of the United States the one hundred states. By Recorder of the General Land Office to the States of		• secording to the Official Plat of the Servey of the said Long, intuitivel on the General Lond Office by the Surveyor General. NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the binted States into the said. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of long, with the appointenances therefore, unto the said. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of long, with the appointenances therefor, unto the said. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of long, with the appointenances therefore, unto the said. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of long, with the appointenances therefore, unto the said. To the proprietor of mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to disches and exercisis in the such water rights are may be recognized and another content of the long country of the convertigation of the proprietor of a win or hold, to extract and remove his one therefore, which are the found to conserved by the authority of the Votted States. BY TESTHONY WHEREOF, I. have caused these interes to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be determined by the authority of the Votted States. The year of our Lond one thousand. Another, have caused these interes to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be determined by the authority of the Votted States. By the President of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and. By the President of the General Land Office to be a formed to the control of the Control one thousand. And of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and. By the President of the General Land Office to the control of the Control one thousand. By the President of the General Land Office to the control of the Control one thousand. By the President of the General Land Office to the control of the Control one thousand. coording to the Official Plat of the Survey of the sull land, inturned so the General Land Office by the Surveyor General: NOW, KNOW VE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appartmenances thereof, into the suid. To HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appartmenances thereof, into the suid. To shave a suid of the said tract of land, with the appartmenances thereof, into the suid. To shave a suid of the said tract of land, with the appartmenances thereof, into the suid. To shave a suid to the said tract of land, with the suid of land in the said of the sai	•
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se	·
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se	•
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the scal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and selected by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to be formed to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se	•
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se	•
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scruwed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, ,President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the seal of the United States the one hundred and search and the lands and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and search and se
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the scal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and selected by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to be formed to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States the one hundred and selected to the United States
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be here under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the Recorder of the General L
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and rerued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof rediches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and president. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the Office to the Independence of the United States the Office to the Independence of the United States the Office to the Independence of the United States the Office to the Independence of the United States the Office to the Independence of the United States the Office of the Independence of the United States the Office of the Independence of the United States the Office of the Independence of the United States the Office of the Independence of the Uni
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the united States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the States of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office of the United States of the Uni
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the united States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the States of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office of the United States of the Uni
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said. the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said. and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and errued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection this such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate of tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof reditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and grant of the United States the one hundred and the President. By the President Recorder of the General Land Office of the General Land Office to the United Vol. Recorder of the General Land Office to the United Vol.
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said. the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said. and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and errued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection this such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate of tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof reditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and grant of the United States the one hundred and the President. By the President Recorder of the General Land Office of the General Land Office to the United Vol. Recorder of the General Land Office to the United Vol.
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the united States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Land Value of the United States the one hundred and the States of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office to the Land Value of the United States the Office of the United States of the Uni
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said succeed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the succeeding of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore thereform, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereous rights or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day on, in the year of our Lord one thousand. By the President By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the first of the control of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to seal the seal of the General Land Office to s
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said succeed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the succeeding of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore thereform, should the same be found to penetrate of the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore thereform, should the same be found to penetrate of the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereory are ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of the General Land Office to be here unto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the Office to be here united in the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the States the Office to be here united
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said succeed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the succeeding of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore thereform, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereous rights or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day on, in the year of our Lord one thousand. By the President By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the first of the control of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to seal the seal of the General Land Office to s
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said succeed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the succeeding of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore thereform, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereous rights or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day on, in the year of our Lord one thousand. By the President By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the first of the control of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to be here united States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to seal the seal of the General Land Office to s
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the said succeed water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate of tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and support of the United States the one hundred and support of the United States the one hundred and support of the United States the one hundred and support of the United States the one hundred support of the United States the one hundred and support of the United States the one hundred support of th
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and scrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be here unto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the United States the one hundred and the lands here to the lands he
NOW, KNOW YE, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and crued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection in the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate o tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the seal of the General Land Office to the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and the Independence of the United States the one hundred and Independence of the United States the one hundred and Independence of the United States the one h the tract of land above described: TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and the such water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penterrate of the terret the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereon or ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President. By the President By the President of the General Land Office of the General Land Office to the Court of the and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and to heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and crued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection the such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate of the tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereous reditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , , President of the United States of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the united States the one hundred and by the President By the President By the President Recorder of the General Land Office to the Court of the Court of the General Land Office to the Court of crued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate of tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereouser ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day on, in the year of our Lord one thousand. And of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and By the President By Secretary Recorder of the General Land Office ith such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode, to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereor r ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I,	erued water rights for mini	ng, agricultural, manufacturing or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connect tersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way thereof r ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, , President of the United States of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. GENERAL GIVEN UNITED AND AMERICAN GIVEN UN	ith such water rights as m	ay be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws and decisions of courts, and also sub
IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I,	tersect the premises hereby	granted, as provided by law, and there is reserved from the lands hereby granted a right of way ther
America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and and by the President By the President By Executed Vol. Recorder of the General Land Office to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and and and and and are seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and and are seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the United States the one hundred and are seal of the General Land Office to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be here and the seal of the General Land Office to be here as a seal of the General Land Office to be here as a seal of the General Land Office to be here as a seal of the General Land Office to be here as a seal of the General Land Office t Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day of the United States the one hundred and by the President By Secretary Recorder of the General Land Office		America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to
and Secretary By the President By Ecorded Vol. Recorder of the United States the one hundred By the President Recorder of the General Land Office	G GENERAL	Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the day
and Secretary By the President By Ecorded Vol. Recorder of the United States the one hundred By the President Recorder of the General Land Office	(14)
By the President By Recorder of the General Land Office	TAND CAND	and of the Independence of the United States the one hund ecorded Vol	AND OFFICE	and
	AND OFFICA
Elled for December 11.1.1. 25	AND OFFICE	By the President
1,110m non 1100m not 1101011	OFFIC A	By the President By Secreta