

Loggers Lien of John Lundgren

John Lundgren, Claimant,

vs

The Washougal-Land and Logging Company (a corporation)

The Portland Savings Bank, and J. T. Penny as Receiver of the Portland
Savings Bank

Notice is hereby given that John Lundgren of Skamania County, State of Washington, claims a lien upon a lot of fir saw-logs, being about 2,200,000 feet in quantity, and a lot of hemlock logs, being about 500,000 feet in quantity, which were cut or manufactured in Skamania County, State of Washington, the fir logs being marked thus "S" on end and "W W" on side and the hemlock logs thus "H" on end and "V I" on side of each log, and said fir and hemlock logs are now lying in the Washougal River, in that part of said river lying and being in Township number two, north of range five east of the Willamette Meridian, in said Skamania County, being between the Washougal Land and Logging Company's dam in said river and the chute therein and in and near said dam, and in said river as aforesaid, and scattered in the woods along and near the bank of said river, for labor performed upon and assistance rendered in "rustling" rigging and attending to logging work, and in obtaining and securing said saw-logs and logs; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is the Washougal Land and Logging Company (a corporation) that the Portland Savings Bank and J. T. Penny as Receiver of the Portland Savings Bank, of Portland, Oregon, have, or claim to have, some interest therein; that the said Washougal Land and Logging Company, by its duly authorized and constituted president, manager and agent, J. T. Buckley, employed said John Lundgren to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions, to-wit:

The said Washougal Land and Logging Company, by its said duly authorized and constituted president, manager and agent, J. T. Buckley, agreed to pay the said John Lundgren for such labor and assistance the sum of \$40.⁰⁰ per month for "rustling" rigging and \$50.⁰⁰ per month for attending to logging hook; and furnish board and lodging free of charge; that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of the said John Lundgren, who performed labor upon and assisted in "rustling" rigging and attending to logging hook in and about said saw logs and logs for the period of 49 $\frac{1}{2}$ days, viz 32 $\frac{1}{4}$ days "rustling" rigging and 17 $\frac{1}{4}$ days attending to hook; that said labor and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said saw logs and logs between the 22nd day of April, 1895, and the 27th day of September, 1895; and the rendition of said services was closed on the 26th day of September, 1895, and thirty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimant's demand for said service is \$82 ⁶²/₁₀₀, viz: \$49 ³⁶/₁₀₀ at \$40.⁰⁰ per month and \$33 ¹/₃₃ at \$50.⁰⁰ per month; that no part thereof has been paid except \$5.⁰⁰; and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the sum of \$77 99 in which amount the claim is a lien upon said saw-logs and logs. The said John Lundgren also claims a lien on all said saw-logs and logs now owned by said Washougal Land and Logging Company of said county. The said Portland Savings Bank, and the said O. T. Denny as Receiver of the said Portland Savings Bank, and each of them, to secure payment for the work and labor herein described.
