Washougal Land & Logging Co. and others vs.
Jno. J. Carruthers

Jno J Carruthers Claimant
Washougal Land and Logging Company, a corporation
The Portland Savings Bank and
O. N. Denny as Receiver of the Portland Savings Bank

Notice is hereby given that John J. Carruthers of Skamania County, State of Washington, claims a lien upon a lot of fir saw-logs for lumber being about 2,200,000 feet in quantity, and a lot of hemlock logs, for pulp, being about 500,000 feet in quantity, which were cut or manufactured in Skamania County, State of Washington, the fir logs being marked thus "S" on end and "WW" on side and the hemlock thus "H" on end and "W" on side of each log, and said fir and hemlock logs are now lying in the Washougal River in that part of said river lying and being in township number two, north of range five east of the Willamette Meridian in said Skamania County being between the Washougal Land and Logging Company's dam in said river and the chute therein and in and near said dam, and in said river as aforesaid, for labor performed and assistance rendered in felling and cutting and obtaining and securing said saw-logs and logs; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is the Washougal Land and Logging Company, a corporation, that the Portland Savings Bank, and O. N. Denny as Receiver of the Portland Savings Bank, of Portland, Oregon, have, or claim to have, some interest therein; that the said Washougal Land and Logging Company, by its duly authorized President, manager and agent, J. A. Buckley employed said John J. Carruthers to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions, to-wit:

The said Washougal Land and Logging Company by its said President, manager and agent J. A. Buckley agreed to pay the said John J. Carruthers for such labor and assistance the sum of $30.00 per month from May 20, 1895, to July 1, 1895, and the sum of $35.00 per month from said July 1st to September 18, 1895 and furnish board and lodging free of charge: that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of the said John T. Carruthers who performed labor upon and assisted in felling and cutting said logs and saw-logs for the period of 75¼ days: that said labor and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said saw-logs and logs between the 19th day of May 1895 and the 18th day of September 1895, and the rendition of said service was closed on the evening of the 17th day of September, 1895, and thirty days have not elapsed since that time: that the amount of claimants demand for said service is the sum of $961.00: that no part thereof has been paid except the sum of $555.95, and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the sum of $340.05, on which amount the claims a lien upon said saw-logs and logs. The said John T. Carruthers also claims a lien on all said saw-logs and logs now owned by said Washougal Land and Logging Company of said County, the said Portland Savings Bank, and the said O. N. Denny as Receiver of the said Portland Savings Bank and each of them, to secure payment for the work and labor performed in obtaining or securing the said saw-logs and logs as described
