And Whereas said party of the second part has consented to such change, as is testified to by the execution of this indenture,

Now Therefore This Indenture Further Witnesseth that the said party of the first part hath covenanted and agreed, and by these presents doth for itself, its successors and assigns, covenant and agree, with the party of the second part hereto, and its successors and successor in form and manner following; that is to say:

That notwithstanding the purchase and cancellation of any of the said bonds by the party of the second part with the funds so paid or to be paid to it as aforesaid, as a sinking fund, it the said party of the first part, will pay to the party of the second part, on each and every first day of January and July during the continuance of the trust, a sum equal to the interest coupons which would have accrued upon each and all of the said cancelled bonds in said sinking fund upon said first days of May and November respectively next preceding said first days of January and July had said bonds not been cancelled as in said fourth article provided; the said moneys, so to be paid, to be received and applied by the party of the second part in the same manner as the said semi-annual payments of $30.000 each to be made as in said mortgage of July 1st 1879, provided.

And said party of the second part hath covenanted and agreed and by these presents doth for itself, its successors and assigns covenant and agree with the party of the first part hereto and its successors and assigns, that the aforesaid covenant and stipulation shall be supplemental to said fourth covenant in said indenture of July first, A.D. 1879, contained as hereinbefore recited and shall be considered, treated, construed and applied in all respects as if the same had been inserted and made and was contained in said indenture of July first, A.D. 1879,
