

Liens

Nathan of Stogsdill, Claimant

vs.
W. K. Ellsworth

Notice is hereby given that Nathan of Stogsdill of Skamania County State of Washington, claims a lien upon a lot of hay, being about 10 tons in quantity which was cut or manufactured in said County and State and which is now in bales and lying on an island conveniently known as Powell's Island about one mile east of Bock, along the line of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway in said County, for labor performed, and for assistance rendered in harvesting and baling said hay; that the name of the owner or reputed owner is W. K. Ellsworth; that he employed said claimant to perform such labor and render such assistance upon the following terms and conditions: to wit:

That said W. K. Ellsworth agreed to pay said claimant for such labor and assistance that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully completed with on the part of said claimant who performed labor upon and assisting in harvesting and baling said hay for a period of about fifty seven days, that said work and assistance were so performed and rendered upon said hay between the second day of June 1909 and the 31st day of July 1909 and forty days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimants demand for said services is $60.50; that no part thereof has been paid except $5.00 and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon after deducting all paid credits and offsets, the sum of $55.50 in which amount he claims a lien upon said hay. The said claimant also claims a lien on all said hay now owned by said W. K. Ellsworth of said County to secure payment for the work and labor performed in harvesting and baling said hay herein described.
