

George S. Burke, claimant, vs. W. J. Matheson

Notice is hereby given that on the 1st Day of July 1909 at the request of W. J. Matheson George S. Burke commenced to perform labor, upon a first bottom gravel barment first known as and named State C. House and later changed to the name of "Bunkles" and by which name it is at present known, said barment being about 65 feet in length with ten foot beam and under draft of three feet, of which property the owner or reputed owner is W. J. Matheson, the performance of which labor ceased on the 22nd Day of September 1909, that said labor performed on said barment was of the value of $ 275.00, less the sum of $ 95.00 allowances for board and cash advanced, leaving a balance of due said claimant amounting to the sum of $ 280.00 over and above all good credits and off sets, for which labor the undersigned claims a lien upon the property herein described, and which said property is now tied up at the dock at Thurman, Washington, for the sum of $ 280.00
