Assignment.

For a valuable consideration, I do hereby assign and set over to E. B. Wood all of my lien rights, created by law which have been created by my filing and having recorded a certain lien notice, on all the franchise earnings and on all the real & personal property of the Table Rock Lumber Company, an Oregon Corporation, which lien notice is of record in Book C. of Liens on page 229 thereof, on the records of the Auditor's Office in Skamania County, Washington, and this assignment is intended to convey all liens, rights by me held against said company named above, by reason of having performed labor for said company, and is intended to also transfer and assign to the said E. B. Wood all rights of action to recover therefor and thereon by me held thereunder, so as to vest in the said E. B. Wood all rights and remedies by me held thereunder.

Dated at Stevenson, Washington, this 10th day of May 1910.
