Notice of Claim of Lien of Labor

Notice is hereby given that on the nineteenth day of June 1900 at the request of Harry F. Sturteley, the agent and manager of the property hereinafter described the said Harry F. Sturteley then acting as such agent and manager of the owners of said property being the said Oliver Ballard, Jessie Ballard and Anna Audrey Wilson, the above named defendants, commenced to perform labor upon the certain building or structure consisting of a two story frame bungalow situated upon the following described premises, to-wit: the Southwest one quarter of the Southwest one quarter of Section Twenty four, Township Three north, Range one East of Willamette Meridian, in Skamania County, Washington.

Of which property the said Oliver Ballard, Jessie Ballard Geary and Anna Audrey Wilson are the reputed owners. The performance of aforesaid labor was on the eighteenth day of July 1910. That all of said labor herein above described is necessary for the convenient use and occupation of the said building or structure, that said labor performed was of the value of thirteen dollars; that aforesaid days have not elapsed since and lack current date. For which labor the aforesaid, undersigned, claims a lien upon the property herein described and the building situated thereon for the said sum of thirteen dollars.
