I, John Holtzen, of Skamania County, Washington Territory hereby claim a lien upon all that certain lot of fir lumber both dressed and undressed, amounting to about Five Hundred Thousand Feet at the date hereof, lying and being in the Lumber yard, at the Saw Mill of A. C. Phelps, and Geo. Brotten, at Sprague in said Skamania County the said lumber being the property of the said A. C. Phelps and Geo. Brotten, partners doing Saw Mill business under the firm name of Phelps and Brotten. The statement of my demand is as follows: On the 15th day of March 1881, I was employed at Sprague, Skamania County as a Carpenter, in and about the said Mill, and the said flume and as a laborer in and about the manufacture of lumber, in said Mill, by the said A. C. Phelps. Said above portion of a Lien was recorded by mistake in this book.
