Location Notice of Quartz Claim by R S Jenkins

Notice is hereby given that I have discovered a vein, or lode, of rock bearing mineral, within the limits of the claim, and have this 5th day of May, 1897, under and in accordance with the revised Statutes of the United States, located 1,500 feet in length on this vein, or lode, extending — feet — and 1,500 feet S.E. from this notice with surface ground 200 feet on each side from the center line of said lode, claiming all dips, spurs and angles, situated in the Bald Mountain Mining district, county of Seaman, State of Washington. Said claim is known by the name of the Wisconsin, and its boundaries are described as follows:

Commencing at the North West end stake and running 1,500 feet in a South East by direction to prospect shaft on Bald Mountain trail. This claim is an extension of Lumberton claim the Roamer, also claim timber and water privileges as follows: I claim all water and timber for mining purposes. I intend to hold and work said claim as provided by all local laws, rules and customs of mines and mining Statutes of the United States, Dated May 5, 1897
