New York Lode Mining Claim

Minning District, Skamania County, State of Washington

The undersigned, who is a citizen of the United States, hereby declare and Give Notice, to all Persons concerned, that he has discovered a vein or lode within the limits of the claim hereby located, and in said lode a vein or veins of Lead or ore, with at least one well defined wall and that he has this Seventh day of August AD 1897 located and do hereby locate and claim under and by virtue of Chapter Six of Title Thirty-two of the revised Statutes of the United States, and the laws amendatory thereto, and the laws of the State of Washington, a Mining Claim upon said Lode or Vein, to be designated and named the New York Lode Mining Claim: Extending along said vein or lode fifteen hundred (1500) feet in a Northerly direction from the center of the discovery shaft (at which shaft this notice and Statement is posted) and three hundred (300) feet on each side from the middle or center of said lode or vein at the surface; comprising in all fifteen hundred (1500) feet in length along said vein or lode, and six hundred (600) feet in width, with all the rights and privileges, as to surface ground and holes, veins or lodes, within the boundaries of said claim, and otherwise, and the metals, minerals and valuable deposits of every kind contained in said lode or vein, veins or lodes, or within said boundaries, which are given or allowed by the laws of the United States aforesaid, or of the State of Washington.

This location is distinctly marked on the ground, so that its boundaries can readily be traced by a post set at Discovery shaft, where this Notice and Statement is posted this Seventh day of August AD 1897, and by substantial posts or monuments at each corner of the claim, and the general boundaries of the claim so marked by said posts or monuments, as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a hemlock tree marked South End Center of New York Lode where this Notice is posted and running thence three hundred (300) feet in a Westerly direction to the S.W. corner, post marked South West corner of New York Lode then fifteen hundred (1500) feet in a Northerly direction to the N.W. corner, post marked North West corner of New York Lode then three hundred (300) feet in an Easterly direction to the North end center post marked North end center of New York Lode then three hundred (300) feet in in easterly direction to the N.E. corner post marked N.E. corner of New York lode then fifteen hundred (1500) feet in a southerly direction to the South East corner post marked S.E. corner of New York lode then three hundred feet in a westerly direction to place beginning.

The mining claim hereby located is situated in Mining District Skamania County, State of Washington, and is about three quarters of a mile in a South westerly direction from Mota Lake. It adjoins claim on the North and the Sep-seo-see claim on the South. The undersigned intending to hold two claims, under and according to the laws of the United States and of the State of Washington, and to record this statement, under oath, in the County Recorder's Office of said County, as provided by law. Dated this Seventh 7th day of August 1897, and signed
